33. CASA-i is based on Shariah concept of Tawarruq.
Prevention and Mitigation of Banking Fraud and Scam
34. The Bank may from time to time provide the latest update or content to educate the Eligible Cardholders and create awareness that helps prevent or mitigate fraud and scam risk. These may include but not limited to security tips, software/operating system/application/version update, and regulation requirements from any relevant governing bodies.
35. The Eligible Cardholders shall keep in safe custody of all banking instruments, for example cheque books/cheque leaves, security tokens, debit card, telephone banking PIN, internet and mobile banking login credentials, and transaction authorisation code (TAC). The Eligible Cardholders shall notify the Bank immediately when the Eligible Cardholders become aware that any of the above is lost or used without authority or proper authorisation. The Eligible Cardholders shall not be liable for losses resulting from unauthorised transaction(s) occurring after the Eligible Cardholders had notified the Bank in accordance with these Terms and Conditions that the Eligible Cardholders' banking instruments mentioned above have been lost, misused, stolen, compromised or breached.

36. Where any loss or damage suffered by the Eligible Cardholders is solely attributed to the willful negligence of the Bank, the Bank's sole and entire liability (whether in respect of one or more claims) to the Eligible Cardholders in contract or tort shall not exceed the amount of the transaction which gave rise to the claim or claims or the direct damages sustained, whichever is lower. In no event shall the Bank be liable for any loss of business, loss of profits, earnings or goodwill, loss of data, indirect, consequential, special or incidental damages, liabilities, claims, losses, expenses, disbursements, awards, penalties, proceedings and costs regardless of whether the possibilities of such losses or damages were disclosed to, or could have reasonably been foreseen by the Bank.
37. Upon being notified by the Eligible Cardholders of such incident, the Bank shall conduct an investigation and the Eligible Cardholders is required to provide sufficient information and collaboration to facilitate the investigation. The Bank is hereby given the authority to perform the following measures upon detection (with/without prior consent from Cardholders) in order to prevent or mitigate further financial loss while the Bank is performing its investigation:
- i. Suspend or freeze the affected account;
 - ii. Revoke or reset the Cardholders' internet or mobile banking access; and/or
 - iii. Revoke the validity of banking instruments; and the Eligible Cardholders will be notified once the above has been operated.
